EVENT DETAILS

GLOBAL VILLAGE PROJECT

For 14 years, Global Village Project has made an on the lives of refugee families by providing tuition-free, middle school education girls for who have experienced interrupted education. As the saying goes, "it takes a village to raise a child." Global Village Project is on a mission to reactivate the schooling of refugee girls so that they can access all the benefits of a holistic education. Our vision is that refugee girls arriving in the metro Atlanta area have a safe place to learn and are equipped with all the tools they need to surmount the barriers to equity and accelerate their education.

TRIBUTE TO EDUCATION GALA

SUNDAY, APRIL 23, 2023 | DEKALB CONFERENCE CENTER

Tribute to Education is our annual event which honors the achievements of our graduating class, and mobilizes funding to support our existing and continuing students. We expect 200 guests to join us at Tribute to Education this year. The event remains a key component of our school's continued services and ongoing development. Every dollar raised helps us provide education to newly-arrived girls whose families are seeking to give them the best education. With your support, we hope to meet our goal of raising $275,000!

Our theme this year is 'Beyond Possibility', in recognition of the fact that an education such as the one GVP provides to our students enables them to go beyond the boundaries of what would otherwise have been considered possible in their loves. Join us for food, drink, fun, storytelling and fundraising including a live Auction and Scholarship Paddle Raise.

ABOUT GLOBAL VILLAGE PROJECT

Global Village Project is the only school in the US designed to meet the needs of refugee girls with interrupted education. Upon arrival in the US, refugee children are placed in school according to their age and not their academic ability, despite the fact that many of them have missed years of school and often had limited to no English language skills. Additionally, girls are disproportionately disadvantaged from boys, since faced with limited household family incomes, families often prioritized boys' education.

Our program was founded when a group of educators, who had been working with refugees, realized that many refugee young women needed more support than their younger siblings. In order to succeed academically and socially in their new home, they deserve a space designed specifically for their needs as older newcomers.

Today, GVP provides a robust and comprehensive curriculum for the students at our school, equipping them with the knowledge they need to succeed in high school and beyond and supporting their families as they invest in their daughters' education. With a solid educational foundation and the community of support they receive at GVP, our alumni are staying in school, graduating, and going to college and graduate school. Over 25 GVP graduates are now enrolled in or graduated from colleges and universities around the country.

"The classroom, with all its limitations, remains a location of possibility. In that field of possibility, we have the opportunity to labor for freedom, to demand of ourselves and our comrades an openness of mind and heart that allows us to face reality even as we collectively imagine ways to move beyond boundaries."
